Prophecy: Are you able to perceive, with reasonable accuracy, reality in dubious circumstances or in ambiguous people on a regular basis and speak with clarity into the situation?
Serving, or helps: Are you able to identify the unmet needs among a group of people, find it easy to serve in meeting those needs with a real sense of personal satisfaction, without worrying about whom receives the credit?
Teaching: Are you able to communicate information so that other people learn?
Encouraging: Are you able to speak words of encouragement, comfort and counsel in such a way that others feel edified and freshly fuelled with courage?
Giving: Are you able to give offerings well above the tithe regularly, generously and cheerfully; not because you necessarily earn a large salary, but because you enjoy doing so?
Leading: Are you able to set goals for a group of people in line with God's purpose for them, and envision them to achieve those goals in togetherness?
Mercy: Are you able to feel genuine compassion towards needy people and find it easy to translate that empathy into loving acts that alleviate the suffering?
Hospitality: Are you able to provide an inviting and loving home to people in such a way that they are made to feel secure and "at-home"?
Administration: Are you able to understand quickly and clearly grasp the short-, medium- and long-term goals of a group of people, establishing workable plans and systems to achieve those goals?
Psalmist: Are you able to play a musical instrument and/or write music in a way that inspires others to worship God through music and song?
Missionary: Are you able to minister your other spiritual gifts in a second culture?
Special ability: Are you able to do something in a specific area of expertise better than the average person is? Write down your special ability here:
Intercession: Are you able to pray regularly for extended periods of time (an hour or more) with ease and personal satisfaction, and receive specific answers more than other people that you know?
Evangelism: Are you able to share your faith with unbelievers easily, regularly and with definite success, that people get saved and become responsible members of a local church?

KEY: If answering "YES", indicate the degree of your affirmative answer: 1= Sometimes to 5 = Always.
